

Welcome to the 2014-2015 GRCC School Council!

The missions of our school council are

- To foster the well-being and effectiveness of our school community and to enhance student learning.
- To be a valued and integral component of our school; working in collaborative partnership with school administration and home.

Through our meetings and regular presence in the school, we endeavor to support, strengthen, and enhance our students' educational experience through example, communication, and faith in Christ.

We are eager to be a positive presence in our school community this year.

Come visit our table during Parent Teacher Interviews on Wednesday, October 22 and Thursday, October 23, 2014.

We need your help! There are many ways to be involved – attend meetings (executive member or member at large), sit on a short-term committee, help out with school activities or share your skills with the group. We welcome your participation in any way that works for you! We welcome all parents, of all faiths.

We are looking for:

- Chairperson
- Vice-Chairperson
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Class Representatives (1/grade)
- Members at Large – Parents and members of our school community
- Student Representative(s)
- Project Committee Members

Also on council:

- School Trustee Rep: Ron McKay
- Administration Reps: Derek Brown and Marlys Phillips
- Teacher Representative: Joan Lawrence
